

Veilomani Closet & Pantry Initiative

Student Support Application & Survey Form

The Fiji National University (FNU) Foundation is all about creating opportunities and making education more accessible for everyone. It's dedicated to helping students overcome challenges and reach their full potential, no matter their background. The Foundation works with generous donors and partners who believe in the power of education. Every donation makes a real difference—whether it's funding scholarships, supporting student projects, or providing resources to those who need them most. By bringing people together, the Foundation builds a strong support network that helps students succeed.
